Puget Sound Marine and Nearshore Grant Program

Improving Community Oil Spill Preparedness and Response in Regions Most At-Risk

RESULTS FROM RFP 12-0021 PROPOSAL EVALUATION

PROJECT TITLE	PROJECT PROPONENT	GRANT REQUEST
Selected For Funding
Preparing COASST Post Spill	University of Washington	$ 52,660
Geographic Expansion of the Puget Sound Seabird Survey and Volunteer Training for Early On-Scene Reconnaissance	Seattle Audubon Society	$ 48,479
Swinomish Oil Spill Preparedness Project	Swinomish Indian Tribal Community	$ 35,003
Selected for Limited Funding
San Juan Marine Resources Committee Oil Spill Preparedness Proposal	Northwest Straits Foundation, San Juan County MRC and LIO	$ 60,000
Not Selected For Funding
Kelp Ecosystem Vulnerabilities to Oil Spills: Baseline Information for Protecting Key Resources in the Strait of Juan de Fuca	Coastal Watershed Institute, University of Washington	$ 60,000
Marine Resources Committees Regional Oil Spill Preparedness Proposal	Northwest Straits Foundation, San Juan County MRC and LIO	$ 60,000
Engaging Community Volunteers in Local Oil Spill Preparedness	Washington State University, WSU Island County Extension	$ 55,786
Strait Action Area – Oil Spill Preparedness Proposal	Northwest Maritime Center, Makah Tribe Office of Marine Affairs, Strait Ecosystem Recovery Network Local Integrating Organization	$ 60,000
Improving Local Organizations Response Capabilities through Implementation of Local Preparedness and Contingency Plans	Seattle Audubon Society	$ 47,768

November 2012