

WDFW Lands 20/20 Public Review - 01/17/17

Project Description	This project incorporates wetland and floodplain habitat into the adjacent Chehalis Wildlife Area resulting in increased opportunities for waterfowl hunting and fishing. The area will also provide refuge habitat for salmonids during flood events.
Species /Habitat	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Bull Trout• Coho Salmon• Waterfowl Concentrations
Project Benefits	Increased opportunities for waterfowl hunting, fishing and provides floodplain protection.

Chehalis Wildlife Area Floodplain

Area of Interest

- Proposed Project Area

Transportation Network

- US Highway
- State Route
- Local Road

Major Public Land

- WA Dept of Natural Resources
- WDFW Owned Land
- WDFW Controlled Lands

Hydrography

- Lakes and Wide Rivers
- Rivers and Streams

Chehalis Wildlife Area Floodplain

