EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.
- That in order to implement the requirements or reductions in appropriations enacted in any budget for fiscal years 2009, 2010, or 2011, which necessitates the need for the immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the fiscal needs or requirements of the agency.

Reasons for this finding: Catch and effort in the estuary sturgeon fishery have been less than expected. White sturgeon remain available for harvest based on the guideline for this area. There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.

NEW SECTION

WAC 232-28-61900G Exceptions to statewide rules—Columbia River sturgeon.
Notwithstanding the provisions of WAC 232-28-619:

- (1) Effective immediately until further notice, it is unlawful to retain sturgeon caught in those waters of the Columbia River and tributaries from Bonneville Dam upstream to McNary Dam.
- (2) Effective immediately through July 31, 2010, all angling is prohibited from a line between the upstream end of Sand Island, located east of Rooster Rock State Park on the Columbia River, to a marker on the Oregon shore, downstream to a line between the lower end of Sand Island and a marker on the Oregon shore.
- (3) Effective immediately through August 31, 2010, it is unlawful to fish for or possess sturgeon in those waters of the Columbia River upstream from a line crossing the Columbia from Navigation Marker 82 on the Oregon shore through the upstream exposed end of Skamania Island, continuing in a straight line to a boundary marker on the Washington shore.
- (4) Effective July 15 through August 1, 2010, a person may retain white sturgeon caught in those waters of the Columbia River from the mouth upstream to the Wauna power lines, and all adjacent Washington tributaries. Daily limit 1 fish. Minimum size limit is 41 inches fork length; maximum size is 54 inches fork length.

REPEALER

The following section of the Washington Administrative Code is repealed effective July 15, 2010

WAC 232-28-61900S Exceptions to statewide rules—Columbia River sturgeon.
(10-163)

EMERGENCY RULE ONLY

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

: (a) That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

9 (b) That state or federal law or federal rule a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.

Reasons for this finding: Extends the recreational sturgeon fishery in the area below Wauna powerlines. Catch and effort in the estuary sturgeon fishery have been less than expected and additional white sturgeon remain available for harvest, based on the guideline for this area. There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.
