CR-103E (May 2009)

Agency: Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife

- Immediately upon filing.
- Later (specify) July 18, 2011

Any other findings required by other provisions of law as precondition to adoption or effectiveness of rule?

Purpose: The purpose of this rule-making is to allow non-treaty recreational fishing opportunity in the Columbia River while protecting fish listed as threatened or endangered under the Endangered Species Act. This rule-making implements federal court orders governing Washington's relationship with Treaty Indian Tribes, federal law governing Washington's relationship with Oregon, and Washington Fish and Wildlife Commission policy guidance for Columbia River fisheries.

Citation of existing rules affected by this order:

Repealed: WAC 232-28-61900J, WAC 232-28-61900W
 Amended: WAC 232-28-619
 Suspended:

Statutory authority for adoption: RCW 77.04.130, RCW 77.12.045 and RCW 77.12.047

Other authority : United States v. Oregon, Civil No. 68-513-KI (D. Or.), Order Adopting 2008-2017 United States v. Oregon Management Agreement (Aug. 12, 2008) (Doc. No. 2546); Northwest Gillnetters Ass'n v. Sandison, 95 Wn.2d 638, 628 P.2d 800 (1981); Washington Fish and Wildlife Commission policies concerning Columbia River fisheries; 40 Stat. 515 (Columbia River Compact).

EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.
- That in order to implement the requirements or reductions in appropriations enacted in any budget for fiscal years 2009, 2010, or 2011, which necessitates the need for the immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the fiscal needs or requirements of the agency.

Reasons for this finding: The summer Chinook allocation for the sport fishery downstream of Bonneville Dam has been achieved and closing the fishery to retention of adult Chinook will ensure that upriver fisheries are not constrained. Closing fisheries below the mouth of the Snake River for sockeye retention are necessary because the non-Indian limit for sockeye has been reached. There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.
