EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.
- That in order to implement the requirements or reductions in appropriations enacted in any budget for fiscal year 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, or 2013, which necessitates the need for the immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the fiscal needs or requirements of the agency.

Reasons for this finding: Based on the current harvest estimates and anticipated harvest through Tuesday, May 27, 2014, the spring Chinook harvest allocation for the Snake River is expected to be achieved. There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.

NEW SECTION

WAC 220-310-19500L Freshwater exceptions to statewide rules—Snake River.

Notwithstanding the provisions of WAC 220-310-195, effective 8:50 p.m. May 25, 2014, it is unlawful to violate the provisions below. Unless otherwise amended, all permanent rules remain in effect:

- (1) A person may fish for and possess salmon in waters of the Snake River from the south shore boat launch (Ilia boat launch) across to the mouth of Almota Creek upstream about four miles to the restricted fishing area below Lower Granite Dam. Open Saturday through Tuesday. Daily limit of six hatchery Chinook, of which not more than one may be an adult Chinook. Minimum size for Chinook is 12 inches in length.
- (2) All Chinook with the adipose fin intact, and all steelhead, must be released immediately, unharmed.
- (3) Hooks must be barbless when fishing for all species during times and in locations open for salmon fishing and retention, and only single barbless hooks are allowed when fishing for sturgeon.
- (4) It is unlawful to use any hook larger than 5/8-inch (point of hook to shank) for all species except sturgeon.
- (5) Night closure is in effect for salmon and sturgeon.
- (6) For all areas open for Chinook, anglers must cease fishing for Chinook when the adult limit has been retained for the day.

REPEALERS

The following section of the Washington Administrative Code is repealed effective 8:50 p.m. May 25, 2014:

WAC 220-310-19500J Freshwater exceptions to statewide rules—Snake River. (14-111)

The following section of the Washington Administrative Code is repealed effective 8:52 p.m. May 27, 2014:

WAC 220-310-19500L Freshwater exceptions to statewide rules—Snake River.

EMERGENCY RULE ONLY

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

(x) That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.

() That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.

() That in order to implement the requirements or reductions in appropriations enacted in any budget for fiscal years 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 or 2013 which necessitates the need for the immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the fiscal needs or requirements of the agency.

Reasons for this finding: Based on the current harvest estimates and anticipated harvest through Tuesday, May 27, 2014, the spring Chinook harvest allocation for the Snake River is expected to be achieved. There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.
