EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.
- That in order to implement the requirements or reductions in appropriations enacted in any budget for fiscal year 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, or 2013, which necessitates the need for the immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the fiscal needs or requirements of the agency.

Reasons for this finding: The underlying intent of WAC 220-56-510 is to prohibit the retention of bull trout as bull trout are listed as endangered or threatened wildlife under 50 C.F.R. § 17.11. This rule change is needed to clarify that it is unlawful to retain bull trout, as initially intended and is necessary to prohibit the retention of bull trout. This rule is interim until permanent rule changes can be adopted.
