

2014 Pacific County Marine Resources
Annual Science Conference
Saturday May 17, 2014
WSU Cranberry Museum, Long Beach, WA

8:00-8:45-Morning Mingle

8:45-9:00-Introductions

9:00-10:00-Paul Dye with TNC-Potential Conservation and Economic Outcomes from Shoreline Master Programs and Marine Spatial Planning (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

10:00-11:00-Hilary Franz with Futurewise-Using Science to Protect the Shoreline Environment and Enhance the Shoreline Based Economy (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

11:00-12:00-Brett Dumbauld with OSU-Oyster Aquaculture: An Important Feature of the Willapa Bay Landscape (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

12:00-1:00-Lunch

1:00-2:00-Jeff Ward with PNNL- Marine renewable energy: Status, challenges, and ongoing research (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

2:00-3:00-Lola Flores with Earth Economics-The Natural Value of Pacific County's Nearshore Ecosystems: Local Policy Integration (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

3:00-3:20 Afternoon Mingle

3:20-3:40-Paul Waterstrat-Wasting Starfish Disease (15 minute talk, w/a 5 minute Q &A)

3:40 -4:00-Kathleen Sayce-Update on Innovative Partnership Zone (15minute talk, w/a 5 minute Q &A)

4:00-5:00-Tim Stearns with the Washington Department of Energy-Marine Energy and the Energy Northwest System: An Evolving Opportunity-Far From Ripe, but Invaluable to Explore (35-45minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

5:30-7:30-Dinner-Seafood Feast!