Welcome and Introductions

Brie Van Cleve, Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW) coordinator for the WDFW coastal marine resource committee (MRC) program, welcomed meeting attendees and stated the meeting purpose was to finish revising the program priorities and benchmarks. ____ people were in attendance.

Announcements

Brie had copies available of the recently completed legislative report.

Revision of Priorities and Benchmarks

The MRC work group agreed that an efficient way to edit and revise the benchmarks was to break into five groups and make changes to the remaining sections. After doing so, the group reconvened and went through each change together. The benchmarks and priorities were both revised and agreed upon by the entire work group.

The final version of the Outer Coast Marine Resource Committee's Priorities and Benchmarks was produced.
