Oregon Commission Chair Rae called the Joint Meeting of the Washington and Oregon Fish and Wildlife Commissions meeting to order and welcomed Washington Fish and Wildlife Commissioners to the meeting.

Commissioners, staff, and public attended a luncheon reception.

The Commissions received briefings from Washington and Oregon staff and discussed issues of mutual concern relating to Columbia River fisheries co-management issues, including spring and summer Chinook salmon and sturgeon fisheries. No motions, actions, or public testimony occurred during the meeting.

Chair Rae adjourned the meeting at 3:20 p.m.
