NOTICE OF CANCELATION

Columbia River Compact/Joint State Hearing

November 8, 2010

The Joint State Hearing scheduled for today is canceled.

The hearing was scheduled to discuss the ongoing recreational sturgeon fishery on the mainstem Columbia River from the Wauna powerlines upstream to Bonneville Dam.

Fishery managers have determined the fishery can continue through November 20, and potentially through the remainder of the season, based on updated catch data.

The States will continue to track sturgeon catch in this fishery and schedule a hearing if necessary.
