Columbia River Fishery Notice Joint State Action

Washington Dept. of Fish and Wildlife

September 12, 2005

A Joint-State hearing took place today to review salmon stock status and the ongoing recreational fisheries.

No action was taken today.

However, the states of Washington and Oregon will meet again Wednesday September 14 at 3PM to review salmon run-sizes and the on-going Lower Columbia recreational fishery to consider management action.

Anglers need to be aware that recreational fishery below Bonneville Dam could close to chinook retention as early as Saturday September 17th.

CHECK THE WDFW HOTLINE FOR FISHERY UPDATES AT (360) 902-2500 or (360) 696-6211 *1010.
