

Elk Area 5051

Location: Elk area 5051 is located in Cowlitz County and encompasses the towns of Longview, Kelso, and Toutle. It lies within portions of GMU 550 to the south, GMU 520 to the north and GMU 556 to the south east. It consists of 30miles of land running south to north and 48 miles of land running east to west. The area lies between Interstate 5 on the west and State Highway 504 and Headquarters Road.

Access: All property within the boundaries is private land. Permission from land owners must be attained prior to hunting in the area.

Hunting method restrictions: The area has some firearm restrictions the Washington State Hunting Regulations manual will have the exact areas and restrictions.