

Lynch Cove Public Duck Hunting Blinds near Belfair

A small parking area and hand boat launch is located just off Highway 300 about 0.7 miles from Belfair. Take a left into the parking area just before Sand Hill Rd. Hand launch a small boat and motor west on the Union River to the river's mouth in Lynch Cove. Trailered boats can be launched at the Alyn Public Boat Launch several miles to the west along the North Shore Road.

It is unlawful to hunt waterfowl, coot, or snipe in Lynch Cove and Union River except in designated blinds.

These 4 blinds (B) are marked on the attached map.

This is a popular recreation area used by many other outdoor enthusiasts.

All shooting is to be directed in a westerly direction over Hood Canal.

All areas east of the orange posts (orange line on map) are closed to shooting.

Hunting from a boat is not allowed within 1000 feet of the blinds.

These 4 blinds were constructed by local members of Ducks Unlimited and the Washington Waterfowl Association. You are welcome to use them on a first come, first served basis. Please pick up all litter, empties and dead birds when you leave. Other public waterfowl hunting opportunities in Mason and eastern Jefferson Counties can be found on the WDFW website.
