Ms. Kaehler,

The Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW) thanks the Department of Archaeology and Historical Preservation (DAHP) for their timely comments and directions to the WDFW regarding the Snow Creek Pier Removal. It has been brought to my attention that DAHP staff and WDFW's Archaeologist Kat Kelly will be visiting the proposed work site in the near future to determine the best course of action for WDFW to follow prior to commencing work on the proposed project. WDFW is committed to follow the specific recommendations/requirements that results from this onsite visit and project review. Again WDFW appreciates DAHP's comments and we look forward to completing this project in respectful and thoughtful manner.
