COMMENTS & RECOMMENDATIONS: H-L11-04 empties into an active Hoh River side channel. The stability of this side channel is unknown. The section of H-L11-04 in the mid to lower reaches, which runs along the south side of a small field, is very nice. This section may have been channelized. More water could be added to this channel if the small springs and tribs in the immediate vicinity were directed toward it. These small tribs currently run onto the valley floor and go subsurface.
