HOW TO RETREIVE YOUR VA DISABILITY RATING LETTER

Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife will not accept documents that contain a medical diagnosis or other personal medical information. Your VA Disability Rating Letter should only contain your disability rating percentage. If WDFW staff receives documents with any medical information, they will not be able to process your application and your VA letter will be returned.

If you are enrolled in eBenefits, you can access your VA letter at: www.ebenefits.va.gov

Users need to login using to your "premium" account. Recently separated personnel are required to have a premium account before they separate from the military.

Login using your Common Access Card "CAC" card, or password... click on "Manage my Documents" at the top of the page, then follow the directions:

STEP 1: Confirm address on file, next...

STEP 2: Select the "Benefits Summary" letter from the list...

STEP 3: Double click to open... that will open the letter in a NEW web window, pop-up blockers may be an issue. Make sure no medical information is showing... only the percentage rating.

Print a copy for the Fish and Wildlife Reduced Fees Application, and save a copy for yourself.

You can also contact the Federal VA office directly at 1-800-827-1000, to request a letter.

If you have any trouble with eBenefits, please contact your Washington State Department of Veterans Affairs at 1-800-562-2308 for assistance.

You can also get the verification letter from your POA (Power of Attorney) that helped you file your VA claim, such as the American Legion, VFW (Veterans of Foreign War), AMVETS, or DAV.

We hope this helps you in your application process.

Sincerely,
