fficult migrating conditions for returning salmon, impeding their movement upstream and increasing their vulnerability to eaty and sport fisheries. The closure is intended to protect these fish until flow conditions change sufficiently to enable	adoption of a rule.
	Reasons for this finding: This emergency rule is needed because unusually low river flows in recent weeks have created difficult migrating conditions for returning salmon, impeding their movement upstream and increasing their vulnerability to treaty and sport fisheries. The closure is intended to protect these fish until flow conditions change sufficiently to enable arreaty migration and etterment of accomment acts.
