EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.

Reasons for this finding: The Fraser River Panel under the Pacific Salmon Commission relinquished regulatory control in Area 7 on September 16, 2018. Per agreement with co-managers, the reef net fishery begins following relinquishment of regulatory control by the Fraser River Panel and surplus hatchery coho salmon are available for harvest. Additionally there is no harvestable US share of Fraser River sockeye salmon remaining. There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.
