EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.

Reasons for this finding: This rule is necessary to reopen recreational fishing a portion of the Skagit River. Previously scheduled dates for the treaty fisheries have concluded and the closure to avoid gear conflicts between recreational and treaty fishers is no longer necessary.

This rule also maintains salmon seasons for the Skagit River and Cascade River that were originally set in WSR 22-13-004 on June 1 and WSR 22-13-073 on June 9.

There is insufficient time to adopt permanent rules.
