Personal Statement and Observations in support of this petition to amend

WAC 200-300-160 (2) (C)

I live just 1 1/2 miles away from Minter Creek and have been going down to the creek nearly every day since it opened for salmon fishing on September  $1^{st}$  of this year to observe salmon returning to the hatchery and occasionally to fish for them. There may be at any given time 20 to 150 people fishing this little creek which is affected by marine tidal action.

The Anti-Snagging rule is applied to this small creek but nearly everybody uses 3/8 to 3/4 oz. Twitching Jigs to intentionally snag the fish as they attempt to move up the creek to the hatchery.

I have observed on many occasions people snagging 15 or 20 fish within a 20 minute period using Twitching Jigs before snagging one on the head so they could keep the fish. As well, I have observed many fish being retained that were foul hooked instead of being released back into the creek and on a few occasions people un-hooking a foul hooked fish and re-catching it on the head before the fish has a chance to escape back into the creek.

DFW enforcement officers can't be everywhere to check and enforce the anti-snagging rule. It seems that when an officer is around the intentional snagging subsides and then picks up again as soon as the officer leaves.

I believe that amending the anti-snagging rule to include weight added to a hook, as with Twitching Jigs, would reduce or eliminate intentional snagging in small creeks such as Minter Creek. There are many larger streams where Twitching Jigs can be and are an effective lure for catching salmon.
