WASHINGTON COASTAL DUNGENESS CRAB INDUSTRY NOTICE

February 27, 2019

SPECIAL MANAGEMENT AREA CHANGE:

The purpose of this notice is to inform you of changes to the Quinault Special Management Area (SMA). According to the terms of the 2018-19 State-Quinault Dungeness Crab Harvest Management Plan, the Primary SMA will revert to the Secondary SMA at 8:00 am March 4, 2019. This change will open the area from Raft River to Split Rock to state fishers. A 200-pot limit will be in place for the first 30-days this area is open.

In addition, as part of our Harvest Management Plan with the Quinault Indian Nation (QIN), state and QIN managers and policy makers evaluate catch throughout the season to determine the need for inseason measures necessary to achieve harvest-sharing goals for both the state and QIN. The most recent data summary shows that harvest sharing is at approximately 61 percent Quinault and 39 percent State. As a result, at 8:00 am on March 4, 2019, the southern boundary of the Quinault Primary SMA will move from Copalis River to Joe Creek. This change will open approximately five additional miles of fishing area to state fishers. A 100-pot limit will be in place for the first 30-days this area is open.

State and QIN managers will continue to exchange data and evaluate harvest sharing and will consider the need for additional measures as the season progresses.
