Report Wild Turkey and Upland Bird Sightings

Help manage Washington's game bird populations by reporting your observations of wild turkeys and upland birds. In July and August, brood surveys that count the number of chicks or poults with hens will help monitor productivity. The rest of the year, your observations will help monitor distribution: where birds are located, what habitats they're using, and how they might move seasonally.

Go to this webpage for the reporting form and more information: <https://wdfw.wa.gov/hunting/management/game-bird-survey>.

Shoot Clean—Get The Lead Out

- Lead shot can kill wildlife that ingests it.
- It only takes a few lead pellets to be toxic to wildlife.
- Lead shot has resulted in extensive swan mortality in northwestern Washington.
- Target shooting can be a significant source of lead shot in the environment.
- Consider switching to nontoxic shot for all shotgun ammunition.

It is unlawful to possess shot (either in shotshells or as loose shot for muzzleloading) other than nontoxic shot for any purpose in the following areas:

- Well's Wildlife Area (Bridgeport Bar Unit)
- Cowlitz Wildlife Area (all units)
- Whatcom Wildlife Area (all units)
- Shillapoo Wildlife Area (all units)
- Skagit Wildlife Area (all units)
- Snoqualmie Wildlife Area (all units)
- Sunnyside-Snake River Wildlife Area (Headquarters, Byron and Windmill Ranch units)
- Sinlahekin Wildlife Area (Driscoll Island, Hegdahl, and Kline Parcel units)
- Johns River Wildlife Area (Chinook, Chehalis, and Elk River units)
- South Puget Sound Wildlife Area (Big Beef Creek, Lake Koeneman, Nisqually, Skokomish, and Union River units)
- Scatter Creek Wildlife Area (all units)
- North Olympic Wildlife Area (all units)

Please reference WAC 220-414-040 (<https://apps.leg.wa.gov/WAC/default.aspx?cite=220-414-040>) for more information on Nontoxic Shot Requirements.

Important Notice: Mandatory Reporting

Hunters are Required to Report Hunting Activity by January 31st, 2026

Turkey hunters will owe hunting activity reports (spring and/or fall) for each turkey transport tag purchased. Turkey hunters must report their hunting activity for each tag even if they did not hunt or harvest a bird.

Hunters can submit reports online at <https://fishhunt.dfw.wa.gov> or by telephone (toll free at 1-877-945-3492). Hunters who harvest an animal should submit a report within 10 days of harvest and all reports must be submitted by January 31. Hunters who fail to report by January 31 will be subject to a $10 administrative fee, which must be paid before they can purchase a license for the following year. Unsuccessful hunters must also report their hunting activity, including location and days hunted. WDFW will use this information to better monitor hunter effort, distribution, harvest, and trends.

Having a spring and fall season can make reporting confusing for turkey hunters. Any hunter who holds a turkey transport tag during the spring season must submit a spring report for that tag, even if they did not hunt or harvest in the spring. Any hunter who holds an unfilled turkey tag during the fall season must submit a fall report for that tag, even if they did not hunt or harvest in the fall.

For example, if a hunter holds a turkey transport tag during the spring season and is unsuccessful, they can use that tag in the fall, and therefore a report for both spring and fall will be required.

You will need the following information for each tag and season (spring or fall) to submit your turkey hunting activity reports.

1. Whether or not you hunted turkeys.
2. If you hunted:
 - a. The two Game Management Units (GMU) you hunted in the most. Please refer to wdfw.wa.gov/hunting/locations/gmu or the Big Game Regulations for a GMU map.
 - b. The number of days you hunted in each GMU.
3. If you harvested:
 - a. The GMU in which the turkey was harvested.
 - b. Month, day, and year of harvest.
 - c. Sex of the turkey.

2025 Spring Turkey Pamphlet Photo Contest Winner

“This was the first time my wife and I were able to call in two big Toms and harvest both of them. We were lucky enough to have the opportunity for our daughter, Hannah, to be a part of it!”

Thank you for your submissions!

Turkey Jagerschnitzel by O. McClellan

Ingredients:

- 2 lbs. skinless turkey breast
- 1/2 c. turkey or chicken stock
- 1/2 c. white wine or stock
- 3 tbsp butter or bacon fat
- 3 oz. smokey bacon
- salt and pepper
- flour (for dusting)
- 1 lb. chanterelles or other mushrooms, coarsely chopped
- 1/2 c. minced shallots
- 1/4 c. heavy cream
- chopped parsley, for garnish

Directions:

Heat the stock and wine in a saucepan until simmering, then keep warm. In a large sauté pan, cook the bacon with butter until crispy, then crumble and set aside.

Pound the turkey breasts between plastic wrap to about 1/4 inch thick. Season with salt, lightly dredge in flour, and fry in the bacon-butter mixture over medium-high heat for about 1 minute per side. Transfer the cooked cutlets to a plate and reserve the fat. Add the mushrooms and shallots to the sauté pan and cook for 3-4 minutes until the mushrooms release their water. Stir in 2 tablespoons of the reserved fat and sauté for another 4 minutes. Pour in the warm wine and stock, scraping up any browned bits, and simmer for 5 minutes until slightly thickened. Cool slightly, then add cream, seasoning with salt and pepper.

Serve the turkey cutlets topped with the mushroom sauce, garnished with parsley and bacon crumbles. Paired here with a salad of greens, apple, pomegranate, goat cheese, and sunflower seeds.

Your Turkey Dollars at Work

WDFW continues to partner with the National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTF) to improve wildlife habitat in Washington. Last year, this partnership supported a second season of work in the Middle Wind River drainage on the Gifford Pinchot National Forest and supported a new project on the Bowman Creek Natural Area. Merriam’s turkeys populate both sites. These projects focused on thinning overstocked forest stands and restoring native understory vegetation.

The Bowman Creek property is owned by the Columbia Land Trust and enrolled in the WDFW Private Lands Access Program for spring turkey hunting. This property is partially adjacent to the Klickitat Wildlife Area and helps provide continuous habitat for turkey and other species like the endangered western gray squirrel. WDFW and NWTF recently selected two projects to support in the coming year: continuing work in the Middle Wind area and a project on the Okanogan-Wenatchee National Forest near Lake Chelan.

Thank you for purchasing turkey tags, which provide funding for this habitat enhancement work.

Safe and Ethical Turkey Hunting

1. Be sure of your target. After you pull the trigger, it's too late.
2. ALWAYS ask permission to hunt on private land. Most land-owners are cooperative if you ask.
3. Do not attempt to stalk a turkey. That gobbler you're stalking may be another hunter.
4. Unless absolutely necessary, don't use a gobbler call. This call can be productive, but also very dangerous. Use this call when all else fails and then sparingly.
5. Never wear any red, white, or blue clothes. These are the colors of the gobbler's head, the primary target of the turkey hunter.
6. Never presume what you hear is a turkey. Many hunters are convincing callers.
7. Select a calling site that gives at least 40 yards of vision in all directions and sit with your back to a large tree.
8. If another hunter is working a bird, don't spoil it by calling or spooking the bird.
9. Make sure that the gobbler is within sure range of the shotgun and shoot only the neck and head.
10. Call out in a loud, clear voice if you see another hunter (especially if they are close to your "line of sight").

WITH A

FRIEND

EVERY OUTING IS AN

ADVENTURE

Bring a New Hunter!

2 Ways to Bring a Friend Turkey Hunting

- 1 Hunter Education Course
All first time hunters have to complete a Hunter Education course prior to purchasing their initial hunting license. They can take a traditional course or the online course. The online course also has a field skills evaluation requirement.
- 2 Hunter Education Deferral
If your friend has not completed Hunter Education, they can apply for a one-year, once-in-a-lifetime Hunter Education Deferral to try hunting before completing a Hunter Education course. They would have to be accompanied by someone 18 or over that has held a Washington hunting license for the previous three years. They also cannot have failed a Hunter Education course in the last year.

Hunting Access

A true sportsperson respects the land and demonstrates this respect and appreciation while in the field. Remember to obtain permission from the landowner before accessing their land to hunt or fish. While in the field, conduct yourself in a way that will ensure a welcome to those who follow after you. The Discover Pass provides access to state recreation lands and can be purchased online at discoverpass.wa.gov, by phone at (866) 320-9933, or in person wherever hunting licenses are sold. You'll receive a complimentary Vehicle Access Pass for WDFW lands when you purchase an annual hunting license. More information on hunting access is available at wdfw.wa.gov/hunting/locations.

WDFW Private Lands Program

See back cover for more information

Hunting and fishing is an integral part of our culture offering opportunities for families to connect with nature. With more than half of Washington's land in private ownership, finding quality places to hunt or fish on private land can be a challenge. Providing more opportunity is critical to recruitment and retention of hunters and anglers supporting Washington's heritage and traditions.

Since 1948, Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW) has been working with private landowners willing to allow public hunting access on their land. Today, Private Lands staff are located throughout the state working to develop landowner relationships and provide assistance and incentives to increase public access opportunities on private lands. Statewide, there are more than 500 private landowners and over 1.8 million acres enrolled in public access and habitat development agreements under the Private Lands Program.

The Private Lands Access Program is currently accepting property enrollment for hunting, fishing and wildlife viewing types of recreational access. Program staff work with a variety of landowners owning small to large acres of agricultural farmland, idle land, small forest, private industrial timberland and/or wetland/water access sites. WDFW offers four different types of access agreements to landowners: Feel Free to Hunt, Hunt by Reservation, Register to Hunt, and Hunt by Written Permission. To find specific private lands enrolled in any of these programs, please visit our private lands access website at wdfw.wa.gov/private_land.

Tips for Hunting on Private Land

1. Respect private property and landowners.
2. Ask for permission well in advance of the season and make a good first impression.
3. Offer assistance to a landowner (e.g., fixing fences, cutting firewood, picking up trash, etc.).
4. Give the landowner your information (full name, cell phone number, vehicle information, etc.).
5. Pack out all garbage — leave no trace.
6. Leave gates how you found them.
7. Do not drive through fields or private property unless you have permission from the landowner.
8. Know the property boundaries. Do not trespass.
9. Remove all parts of any harvested game, unless instructed otherwise by the landowner.
10. Be aware of all buildings, equipment and livestock.
11. Thank the landowner for providing access.
12. Always remember — hunting on private land is a privilege — NOT a right.

Go to www.mapmet.com and find a spot!

The maps, which you can download into Google Earth or use as a stand-alone, display areas on public land that offer good opportunities for finding turkeys during the spring hunting season.

Respect private property: Do not trespass on private land without the landowner's permission. The site was built in cooperation with all public land wildlife biologists in Stevens, Ferry and Pend Oreille Counties.

All of these areas are open to public hunting. Some of the areas border private land and the owners might or might not allow hunting.

Private Lands Access Program

Washington Department of
FISH & WILDLIFE

Find enrolled properties online at: https://privatelands.wdfw.wa.gov/private_land/

Hunt by Written Permission – This includes private lands where a landowner or organization voluntarily open their land to public hunting on a contact-for-permission basis. Hunt by Written Permission requires the hunter to contact the Landowner and meet in person to obtain written permission to hunt that property. Written permission is validated by the possession of a written slip, provided to the hunter by the landowner. The Department provides these slips to the landowner at no cost. The Hunt by Written Permission program allows for the greatest flexibility for landowners and is our most widely used access program.

Hunt by Reservation – This component of the private lands program launched in 2013. It is attractive to many landowners and organizations because it allows access to specific reservation and hunter information via a landowner portal. The Hunt by Reservation program is managed through an online registration system where hunters create an account in order to reserve available properties. The Hunt by Reservation program allows landowners to manage hunting on their lands, without direct contact with hunters.

Feel Free to Hunt – This includes private lands where the Department has a management agreement with the landowner or organization to provide public access for hunting with minimal restrictions. This type of agreement provides the most open and unrestricted type of access for the public. Many Feel Free to Hunt properties house a wide variety of small game and big game species and provide ample hunting opportunity.

Register to Hunt – This includes private lands where the Department has a management agreement with the landowner or organization to regulate hunting access by on-site registration. Hunters are required to sign in using a registration slip found near the designated parking area. Parking is usually limited for these properties, to limit the number of hunters.
