

Data sources for figures in the Skagit Drainage and Fish Initiative Drainage Maintenance Agreements

Culvert/Bridge Inventory	manbar data set: Manmade barriers to fish passage Collected and compiled by WDFW SSHEAR and Skagit System Coop staff 1997 to 2001
Tidegate/Pump Inventory	gates_pumps data set: Locations and descriptions of Tide gates, Flood gates, and Pump Stations Collected and compiled by Skagit County staff in conjunction with Skagit County drainage and dike commissioners April 2003
Historic PLO/T Sheet Maps	T-sheets and Plat maps Topographic sheets ( T-sheets ) from data collected by U. S. Coast & Geodetic Survey 1864-1899 Land survey plat maps from data collected by the United States General Land Office (GLO) 1850-1890
Fish Distribution: habitat types	FishDist data set Representation of anadromous and resident salmonid fish distribution, based on stream gradient, barriers, stream flow characteristics, field surveys and best biological knowledge. Data collected by Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife, Washington State Conservation Commission, Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission, Limiting Factors Analysis Technical Advisory Groups Maintained by the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW).
Fish Distribution: fish observation points	FishDist data set Representation of anadromous and resident salmonid fish distribution created from the Skagit fish distribution (FishDist) coverage joined with the point details table. Data collected by WDFW and Skagit System Cooperative staff September 2003

Additional Data Sources:

Hill Ditch – Skagit System Cooperative

Skagit System Cooperative Chinook Restoration Research Progress
Report #1, 1996, R. A. Hayman, E. M. Beamer, and R. E. McClure.

Fisher Slough – Tetra Tech

Fisher Slough – Preferred Restoration Plan, October 2006
Carpenter Creek, Hill Ditch, and Fisher Slough Watersheds Initial Flood and Sediment Study, October 2006